CONSENT TO COLLECTION OF PERSONAL AND HEALTHCARE INFORMATION

As a patient of this medical practice, we require you to provide us with your personal details and a full medical history, so that we may properly assess, diagnose, treat and be proactive in your health care needs. We aim to protect the privacy of your health information at all times. You can request a copy of our privacy policy, which includes information about the collection, use and disclosure of your health information. We require your consent to collect your personal information, and its use for the following reasons:

- Administrative purposes
- Billing purposes (including compliance with Medicare and the Dept. of Health and Ageing requirements)
- Disclosure to others involved in your healthcare. This may include allied health professionals, other specialists and health practitioners outside of this practice. This may occur through referral to others or for medical tests and in the reports or results returned to us following referral.
- Disclosure to other doctors in the practice for the purposes of patient care and teaching.
- For research and quality improvement purposes to improve individual and community health care and practice management (this will only be information that does not identify individual patients)
- To comply with regulatory or legislative requirements such as notifiable diseases or where the health and well-being of you or other/s is at significant risk of harm.
- For reminders and recalls which may be sent to you via sms, email or letter regarding your healthcare and management.

You can decline to have your health information used in all or some of the ways outlined above, but it may influence the practice's ability to manage your healthcare to provide the best outcome.

Disclosure of Information to a Third Party

(e.g. partner, husband, wife)

I provide my consent for the following individuals/companies to have access to my personal medical information as follows:

Name: _____ Relationship to patient: _____

DOB: _____ Patients signature: _____

PLEASE READ EACH STATEMENT CAREFULLY AND TICK THE BOX IF YOU AGREE
I have read the information above and understand the reasons why the information must be collected
I understand that I am not obliged to provide any information requested of me, but failure to do so may compromise the quality of health care and treatment given to me or if I provide information but want to put limitations on access or disclosure, I will discuss these with the practice beforehand.
I am aware of my rights to access information collected about me, except in circumstances where access may be legitimately withheld. I understand I will receive an explanation of why the information is being withheld in these circumstances.
I understand that if my information is to be used for any other purposes other than those set out above, my further consent will be obtained.
I consent to the handling of my information by the practice for the purposes set out on this form.
I understand that depending on the age of my child, and given my child's right to privacy, in the clinical judgment of the doctor treating my child I may be prevented from access to information regarding my child's healthcare.
I understand that if I request access to information held about me, I may be charged a fee to cover the administrative costs in providing access.
OR
I am unsure and would like to discuss further with someone from the medical practice before signing

PRIVACY POLICY FOR VERITAS HEALTH CARE MEDICAL CENTRE

Introduction

This privacy policy is to provide information to you, our patient, on how your personal information (which includes your health information) is collected and used within our practice, and the circumstances in which we may share it with third parties.

Why and when your consent is necessary

When you register as a patient of our practice, you provide consent for our GPs and practice staff to access and use your personal information, so they can provide you with the best possible healthcare. Only staff who need to see your personal information will have access to it. If we need to use your information for anything else, we will seek additional consent from you to do this.

Why do we collect, use, hold and share your personal information?

Our practice will need to collect your personal information to provide healthcare services to you. Our main purpose for collecting, using, holding and sharing your personal information is to manage your health. We also use it for directly related business activities, such as financial claims and payments, practice audits and accreditation, and business processes (e.g. staff training).

What personal information do we collect?

The information we will collect about you includes:

- names, date of birth, addresses, contact details
- medical information including medical history, medications, allergies, adverse events, immunisations, social history, family history and risk factors
- Medicare number (where available) for identification and claiming purposes
- healthcare identifiers
- health fund details.

Dealing with us anonymously

You have the right to deal with us anonymously or under a pseudonym unless it is impracticable for us to do so or unless we are required or authorised by law to only deal with identified individuals.

How do we collect your personal information?

Our practice will collect your personal information:

1. When you make your first appointment our practice staff will collect your personal and demographic information via your registration.
2. During the course of providing medical services, we may collect further personal information. We participate in these activities and will access your personal information through Electronic Transfer of Prescriptions (eTP), My Health Record/PCEHR system, e.g. via Shared Health Summary, Event Summary.
3. We may also collect your personal information when you visit our website, send us an email or SMS, telephone us, make an online appointment or communicate with us using social media.

4. In some circumstances personal information may also be collected from other sources. Often this is because it is not practical or reasonable to collect it from you directly. This may include information from:
- your guardian or responsible person
 - other involved healthcare providers, such as specialists, allied health professionals, hospitals, community health services and pathology and diagnostic imaging services
 - your health fund, Medicare, or the Department of Veteran's Affairs (as necessary).

Who do we share your personal information with?

We sometimes share your personal information:

- with third parties who work with our practice for business purposes, such as accreditation agencies or information technology providers – these third parties are required to comply with APPs and this policy
- with other healthcare providers
- when it is required or authorised by law (eg court subpoenas)
- when it is necessary to lessen or prevent a serious threat to a patient's life, health or safety or public health or safety, or it is impractical to obtain the patient's consent
- to assist in locating a missing person
- to establish, exercise or defend an equitable claim
- for the purpose of confidential dispute resolution process
- when there is a statutory requirement to share certain personal information (e.g. some diseases require mandatory notification)
- during the course of providing medical services, through Electronic Transfer of Prescriptions (eTP), My Health Record/PCEHR system (eg via Shared Health Summary, Event Summary).

Only people that need to access your information will be able to do so. Other than in the course of providing medical services or as otherwise described in this policy, our practice will not share personal information with any third party without your consent.

We will not share your personal information with anyone outside Australia (unless under exceptional circumstances that are permitted by law) without your consent.

Our practice will not use your personal information for marketing any of our goods or services directly to you without your express consent. If you do consent, you may opt-out of direct marketing at any time by notifying our practice in writing.

How do we store and protect your personal information?

Your personal information may be stored at our practice in various forms.

e.g. as paper records, as electronic records, as visual (X-rays, CT scans, videos and photos), as audio recordings.

Our practice stores all personal information securely.

-electronic format, in protected information systems / hard copy format in a secured environment. We use passwords, secure cabinets, confidentiality agreements for staff and contractors to prevent breach of patient privacy.

How can you access and correct your personal information at our practice?

You have the right to access and correct your personal information.

Our practice acknowledges patients may request access to their medical records. We require you to put this request in writing [and either post or deliver the request in person] and our practice will respond within a reasonable time. [in 30 days' time, $50 fees payable for full records]. Our practice will take reasonable steps to correct your personal information where the information is not accurate or up-to-date. From time-to-time, we will ask you to verify your personal information held by our practice is correct and up-to-date. You may also request that we correct or update your information, and you should make such requests in writing to Veritas Health Care Medical Centre or email reception@veritashealthcare.com.au

How can you lodge a privacy related complaint, and how will the complaint be handled at our practice?
